COURSE OVERVIEW/DESCRIPTION

All courses in the aural skills sequence include rhythmic and tonal/melodic studies, singing with syllables (la-based minor), moving, melodic and rhythmic dictation, reading, composing, transposing, and improvising. Aural Skills IV is designed to further personal musicianship through learning chromatic tonal harmony within the context of standard repertoire. Students in the course will also (a) hone solfège, listening, and sight-singing skills, (b) continue development of functional piano skills, (c) improvise, and (d) compose and arrange.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. The ability to hear and identify the elements of music.
2. The ability to read and realize musical notation.
3. The ability to perform a cross-section of repertoire at a level commensurate with the concentration.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon completion of the course learners will be able to:

- Audiate, sight-read, dictate, and improvise
- Use Gordon rhythm solmization syllables fluently while patting and/or conducting
- Use Kodály solfège syllables fluently while signing
- Understand the aural/oral → syllabic association → symbolic association → synthesis music literacy process
- Use music literacy skills and concepts in both decoding and encoding higher-level musical skills such as:
 - irregular beat divisions
 - hemiola and cross-rhythms
 - asymmetrical and mixed meters
 - chromaticism
 - chromatic alterations
 - non-Western scales

COURSE POLICIES

RESPECTING DIVERSITY IN THE CLASSROOM

As a Christian college, Roberts Wesleyan College seeks to create an inclusive learning community that recognizes and values human diversity as a reflection of the Kingdom of God, esteems all people, and prepares students to serve in a global environment. Faculty and students alike are expected to contribute to a classroom environment in which all individuals feel safe, welcomed, valued, and respected, and diverse perspectives can be shared, heard, and examined critically.

OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION

The Roberts Wesleyan College assigned email account shall be an official means of electronic communication within the College community. Students are responsible for all information sent to them via their College-assigned email account from faculty, administrative offices, and academic departments.

Dr. Potter makes a sincere effort to reply to time-sensitive emails within 24 hours of receiving them. If you have an urgent matter that cannot wait, please feel free to text him (978.768.8375). Otherwise, please wait for an email reply. He often takes a "sabbatical" from screens on Sundays, so keep that in mind as you wait for your reply. Of course, if you need to reach Dr. Potter during normal office hours, simply stop by his office (Cox 118) and see him in person!

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Reasonable accommodations are available for students who have a documented disability. If you are in need of academic accommodations for any course, please notify the instructor and the Learning Center during the first week of classes. Later notification may delay requested accommodations. All accommodations must be approved by the Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities (x6270).

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Class attendance is considered a high priority for students who desire to become competent musicians/music educators. This is a participation/performance-oriented class; if a class is missed, content is not easily made-up. In other words, do everything in your power to attend EVERY class!

Students are allowed a total of two absences for any reason. Each absence beyond the allotted number will result in the lowering of the course grade 1 increment: A to A-, A- to B+, B+ to B, B to B-, B- to C etc. Being tardy three times equals one absence.

If you will be absent from class, you are required to:

- a) Inform the instructor PRIOR to class.
- b) Review the work that was missed from a classmate.
- c) Submit (via a classmate, email, or in person ahead of time) any homework that was due by class time.

Exceptions will be made for extended illnesses. An extended illness is an illness documented by the Health Center when all classes and ensembles are missed for more than one week. The first two absences apply toward the four allowed. Absences beyond will be excused.

NOTE: Students who are experiencing difficulty with the work are encouraged to discuss the matter with the instructor and arrange for help.

EXPECTED CLASSROOM BEHAVIORS

Educating students in professional values and behaviors occurs inside and outside the classroom at Roberts Wesleyan College. Examples of expected classroom behaviors that exhibit professional behaviors and values include:

- Respect for others, including other students, faculty, and staff,
- Personal integrity and ethical behaviors such as honesty, trustworthiness and academic integrity*,
- Personal responsibility exhibited by:
 - attendance, punctuality, and dependability
 - acting and speaking appropriately
 - coming prepared for class and course related activities
 - participating in classroom activities
- Commitment and ability to work collaboratively with others
- Professional demeanor
- Commitment to personal and professional growth
- Listening with an open mind and learning from constructive feedback.

*See Academic Integrity Policy below for additional guidance on academic integrity

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT

Roberts Wesleyan College and Northeastern Seminary seek to promote personal and intellectual integrity within the academic community. Honesty and trustworthiness are not only fundamental principles of the Judeo-Christian tradition, but essential practices within academe. The following behaviors are, therefore, unacceptable:

- Cheating in its various forms: e.g.,
 - Copying another student's work
 - Allowing work to be copied
 - Using unauthorized aids on an examination
 - Obtaining any part of an examination prior to its administration
 - Fabricating research data
 - Submitting another person's work as one's own
 - Receiving credit falsely for attendance at a required class or activity
- Plagiarizing (i.e. presenting someone else's words or specific ideas as one's own, including inadequate documentation of sources and excessive dependence on the language of sources even when documented). All quoted material and ideas taken from published material, electronic media, and format interviews must be cited: direct quotations must be enclosed in quotation marks. Therefore, whether quoting or paraphrasing, include an appropriate reference to the source (in-text citation) and a Reference page. Refer to the APA Manual for proper citation formats; consult the instructor regarding preferred citation style (American Psychological Association—APA).

- Violating copyright laws and license agreements, including but not limited to:
 - Making illegal single copies of music or other print materials
 - Making and/or distributing multiple copies of printed, copyrighted materials without written permission
 - Making and/or distributing unauthorized copies of computer software
 - and/or digital information

- Denying others appropriate access to information in the classroom, library or laboratory including but not limited to:
 - Removing pages from books or journals
 - Hiding or intentionally damaging materials or electronic information

- Destroying, altering, or tampering with someone else's work.
- Submitting the same or similar work for more than one course or assignment without prior approval from the professors.
- Destroying, altering or tampering with academic or institutional records.

Students who violate the Academic Integrity Policy shall be subject to disciplinary action as outlined in the Student Handbook and Faculty Handbook.
